

emory dance

fall 2009

Faculty Dance Concert: ...me so much nearer home

September 25-26, 2009, 8:00 p.m. and September 27, 2009, 3:00 p.m.

Dance Studio, Schwartz Center for Performing Arts

$5 general admission

Inspired by choreographer Anna Leo's family, this concert presents a sequence of elegant dances that honor the nature of family and community. Blending delicate gesture with physically driving movement, each dance – solo, duet, trio and quartet – is introduced by the reading of a poem. The concert features music composed by Music Department faculty member Steve Everett, and Dance Program composers Kendall Simpson and Klimchak. This concert is sponsored in part by a grant from the Emory University Research Committee.

Emory Friends of Dance Lecture Series: Where Dance and Science Meet: A Creativity Conversation

October 15, 2009, 4:00 p.m.

Dance Studio, Schwartz Center for Performing Arts

No admission charge

David Lynn, Chair of Emory's Chemistry Department, and New York City-based choreographer David Neumann met at Emory's 2008 Evolution Symposium. Their connection continued as Lynn acted as science consultant for Neumann's evolution-themed piece, Big Eater. Emory University Vice President Rosemary Magee will facilitate a conversation with Lynn and Neumann that will make visible the nature of their collaboration and ideas about the intersection of art and science.

advanced beginner group

October 16, 2009, 8:00 p.m. and October 17, 2009, 7:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m.

Dance Studio, Schwartz Center for Performing Arts

$15 public; $10 discount groups; $5 students

"...a recipe for startling creativity." –The Village Voice

David Neumann, artistic director of advanced beginner group, will present Big Eater, a multi-disciplinary dance work inspired by the choreographer's participation in Emory's 2008 Evolution Symposium. Awarded the highly coveted New York Bessie for both performance and choreography, Neumann creates work that engages audiences with intelligence, grace, and wit. This concert is sponsored by the Coca-Cola Artist-in-Residence Program, Emory College Center for Creativity and Arts, Creativity and Arts Initiative, and the Hightower Fund.

Emory Dance Company Fall Concert

November 19-21, 2009, 8:00 p.m. and November 21, 2009, 2:00 p.m.,

Dance Studio, Schwartz Center for Performing Arts

$12 public; $10 discount groups; $5 students

Centered around the theme of memory and performed by students of the Emory Dance Company, this concert showcases the collaborative efforts of Emory faculty members Gregory Catellier, Anna Leo, Sally Radell, George Staib, and Lori Teague.

Fieldwork Showcase

December 6, 2009, 5:00 p.m., Dance Studio, Schwartz Center

$7; tickets may only be purchased at the door

Fieldwork showcases new works created by community artists in various disciplines. Co-sponsored by Several Dancers Core.

~over~

www.dance.emory.edu

emory dance

spring 2010

Cedar Lake Contemporary Ballet

February 24-26, 2010, 8:00 p.m.

Dance Studio, Schwartz Center for Performing Arts

$25 public; $18 discount groups; $10 Emory students

"Dancing that pulls viewers right out of their seats" –New York Times

Through their daring, athletic movement and integration of ballet into contemporary and popular forms, the dancers of Cedar Lake take audiences on a choreographic journey which explores the infinite possibilities of movement and multimedia. Coming to Atlanta for the first time, this internationally acclaimed dance company will present an intimate look at Ohad Naharin's Decadance 2007. The company will present a behind the scenes, stripped-down look at the work and discuss their experience with this world-renowned choreographer.

Emory Friends of Dance Lecture

Date and time to be announced

Women's History Month Dance Presentation

March 18, 2010, 12 noon

Reception Hall, Michael C. Carlos Museum

No admission charge

The Dance program will host a compelling showing of dance works celebrating Women's History Month. Co-sponsored by the Michael C. Carlos Museum

Emory Dance Company Spring Concert

April 22-24, 2010, 8:00 p.m.

November 24, 2009, 2:00 p.m.

Dance Studio, Schwartz Center for Performing Arts

$10 public; $8 discount groups; $5 students

The Emory Dance Company will present an evening of new works choreographed and performed by Emory dance students.

Fieldwork Showcase

May 2, 2010, 5:00 p.m.

Dance Studio, Schwartz Center for Performing Arts

$7; tickets may only be purchased at the door

Fieldwork showcases new works created by community artists in various disciplines. Co-sponsored by Several Dancers Core